Galilee church news

Work for the night is coming! You are extended a Special Invitation to share in worship with us at Galilee Baptist Church this coming Sunday. Church School begins at 9:45 a.m. and services begin at 11 a.m. Pastor Davis will deliver the message and the Senior Choir will be in charge of music.

The ladies day celebration this past Sunday was a huge success. An overflow crowd shared in The AFternoon of Music. Brothers Austin, Lewis, Price, and Lawing were in concert. The Mt. Zion Gospel Chorus of Red House and the Appomattox Choral Ensemble were our special guests. Also, our thanks to everyone for their presence and cooperative spirit.

Mrs. Eva Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hudson, and Deacon Leon Lawing, visited relatives and friends in Maryland and Pennsylvania this past week. Mrs. Celestine Bigger, formerly of Appomattox, and sister of Mrs. Allen, was honored in York Pa., for her church and community work.

The Pleasant Valley Men's Chorus will be in concert at Galilee this Sunday at 3 p.m. Please come out to hear this very fine group.

It is our prayer and desire that everyone will continue in good health and spirit. Please remember everyone in your daily prayers.

The Senior Choir members are reminded of their meeting this coming Saturday at 5 p.m.

Bernard Garceau, Buster Moore, and George Perry at recent reunion of old war buddies.

War buddies reunited

After 40 years apart, two old war buddies were reunited by a phone call to Alfred M. "Buster" Moore.

Mr. Moore received a call from George Perry of Princeton, Idaho. Mr. Perry and Mr. Moore were in the same army squad ( C-Co. 314 INF 79th Div.) together from 1942 until 1944 when Moore was wounded Nov. 29 in France. They had not seen each other since that day.

Mr. Perry and wife, Voris, and Mr. Bernard Garceau and wife, Betty visited with Moore and his wife, Doris earlier this month. Mr. Garceau was in basic training with Moore and Perry.

They toured Camp Pickett, where the men were in basic training and they managed to locate their old barracks. They also visited the Veterans Hospital in Richmond, as well as the many historical points here in Appomattox.

The group brought this happy time to a close with a birthday party Oct. 4, to celebrate Mr. Moore's son Tim's, and Mr. Perry's birthday at Tim's home in Concord.

Contel changes rates

Continental Telephone of Virginia will implement several changes for customers along with increased local rates, said Dan Stainback, superintendent-telephone services, Amherst.

On Sept. 20 Continental received $9.1 million in rate relief, Stainback said. The average monthly increase, effective Oct. 1, 1984, will be 31 percent.

The exchanges of Amherst, Sweet Briar, Gladstone, and Allwood will be able to subscribe to Optional Usage Pricing Service, a local calling plan that allows customers to control the cost of their local phone bills. With Usage Pricing, local calls are measured by duration, distance, and time of day of each call.

Some exchanges will have expanded local calling areas at reduced rates. Allwood customers can now call Amherst (946), Gladstone (933), and Sweet Briar (381). Amherst customers can now call Allwood (922) and Gladstone (933) in addition to Sweet Briar (381). Gladstone customers can now call Allwood (922), Amherst (946), and Sweet Briar (381). Sweet Briar customers can now call Allwood (922) and Gladstone (933) in addition to Amherst (946).

Calls to the expanded areas will be measured like Usage Pricing calls.

Stainback said there will be several other changes effective with the new rates.

Customers leasing single line telephones will have the option of either buying their phones or returning them to Continental. Stainback said if a customer chooses to pay for the telephone over 12 months, Continental will provide a warranty for that period of time. Customers will be receiving more information about the phone ownership plan.

Customers will have the option of maintaining their own inside wire, or Continental will maintain it for 40 cents per line per month. Inside wire starts at the point where the wire enters your home and runs to and includes the jack or connecting block on your wall.

Customers with key systems or PBX systems will have the option of maintaining their inside wire, or Continental will maintain it and bill for maintenance work.

Three other new charges were approved. There will be a $36.50 charge to restore service after disconnection for non-payment. A 1 1/2 percent late payment charge will be applied to unpaid balances. Operator assisted charges will apply to the transfer of billing charges of local usage pricing calls or pay station calls to a third number.

Continental Telephone provides service to 10,000 customers in the exchanges of Amherst, Rephine, Paint Bank, Pamplin, Appomattox, Newport, New Castle, Sweet Briar, Allwood, and Gladstone.

Social Services benefits to increase

The State Board of Social Services voted to increase by 12 percent benefits available to eligible low-income Virginia households for the 1984-85 Fuel Assistance Program.

This action occurred at the Board's Oct. 18 meeting when it was learned that the state would have $20.6 million available in benefits from the Low Income Home Assistance Block Grant. Making projections from previous years' fuel assistance program grant amounts, the Department has earlier anticipated to receive about $35 million for benefits for this year's program.

The actual amount of assistance alloted to each household is based on income, household size, and geographic area of the state. With the 12 percent increase, the maximum fuel assistance benefit per household in the Western Region of the state will be $443; in the Eastern Region, $305; in the Southern Region, $396; in the Central Region, $422; and in the Northern Region $427. Appomattox is in the Central Region.

The maximum income levels will remain the same as previously announced.

Local departments of welfare and social services will begin taking applications for fuel assistance Nov. 1.

Last winter, some 113,299 Virginia households received help with their heating bills. The average fuel assistance grant was $261, with a maximum of $947.

Anyone needing further information about the fuel assistance program may call the Virginia Department of Social Services, toll-free, at 1-800-552-3431 during normal business hours. Hearing impaired individuals with access to a telecommunications device should call, toll-free, 1-800-552-2131.

The Rev. Raymond H. Turner

Raymond Turner cited

The Rev. Raymond H. Turner of Appomattox was recently cited in the United States postal bulletin for the gold pin he received from the Appomattox Chapter of the American Red Cross, for contributing 16 gallons of blood to the Red Cross.

Rev. Turner gave his first pint of blood in 1956 when he was a junior at the old Carver-Price High School.

Since then, he has given high priority to donating blood four times a year.

Rev. Turner is an 16-year veteran of the U. S. Postal Service. He is pastoring in Schuyler, Va. He says, our worth is determined by the good deeds we do, rather than the fine emotions we feel."

He appeals to all of his brothers and sisters in Christ: give blood. Its good for life.

Cannery hours change

The Appomattox Community Cannery will open only one day per week beginning the week of Oct. 29 because of decreasing volume.

The schedule for November will be as follows: Thursday, Nov. 1; Thursday, Nov. 8; Thursday, Nov. 15; Tuesday, Nov. 20 (Thanksgiving Week); Thursday, Nov. 29.

Additional days will be made available as needs demand. Persons interested in rendering lard, processing pork or beef, making stews, etc. are requested to call Mrs. Grace Williams at 248-5794 (home) or 352-2222 (cannery) for appointments.

Every effort will be made to accomodate the patrons and at the same time, operate efficiently.

The Pamplin Cannery will continue to operate on Wednesday of each week, until further notice.

Honor roll additions noted

In last week's Times-Virginian, the names of two students at Appomattox County High School were omitted from the honor roll.

J. C. Rogers earned a place on the "B" Honor Roll for the 12th grade. Rick Pack, a ninth-grader, earned a place on the "B" Honor Roll, as well.

Loans accounts review begins this week

David Larson and Renae Brooks

Reviews of Farmers Home Administration loans accounts will begin this week, to determine which borrowers are financially able to refinance and get qualify for a one-time reduction of part of their loan, according to Terry Mabry, Appomattox County FmHA director.

As a result of President Reagan's recent farm credit initiatives, principle on 2,5 percent (to a maximum of $200,000) of the debt owed the agency for farmers who are experiencing severe financial difficulty, if the set-aside will help achieve a positive cash flow for the borrower.

"We will begin scheduling appointments for our borrowers to review their accounts, determine if they need special assistance and see if we can make that assistance available," Martin says.

"Not every borrower will qualify, but there might be some other way to help, such as consolidation or rescheduling of existing loans," Martin adds. "We will look at all alternatives."

All accounts will be reviewed, according to Martin, with some exceptions, such as accounts in bankruptcy or foreclosure, or those determined able to graduate to other sources of credit.

Under the plan announced recently by President Reagan for farmers experiencing severe financial difficulty, FmHA can set aside up to 25 percent, to a maximum of $200,000, of an FmHA borrower's debt for five years without interest.

For non-FmHA borrowers, the agency can guarantee up to 90 percent of the principle in setting up write-offs of up to 10 percent of the debt.

In both cases, the goal is to restore the farmer to a positive cash flow status.

The contract assistance offered at the county level will be available to both FmHA and non-FmHA borrowers in an effort to help find viable alternatives so that they can continue their operations.

New dentist begins practice in county

Appomattox County's new dentist, David Larson, has a lot in common with his wife, Renae Brooks.

They both like to camp, hike, and fish. They both love the outdoors. And, they're both dentists.

"We met while we were in dental school, at a party designed to help people meet," says David, a 27 year-old native of Minnesota.

"Obviously, the idea (for the party) worked," laughs Renae, also a Minnesota native.

When the young couple finished their work at the University of Minnesota's dental school in Minneapolis, they began researching various areas where they might locate.

Having been in touch with Dr. John Fedison of Appomattox, they visited this area to ascertain what prospects might await them in the rural Central Virginia community.

"We felt the area offered good business opportunities," David notes. "And we love the climate, which is conducive to our interests, such as camping, fishing, and hiking," Renae adds.

So, the couple packed up and moved to historic Appomattox. David began work with Dr. Fedison last week, and Renae is actively seeking an area in which to practice in Central Virginia.

"We're looking forward to living and working in Appomattox," David notes. "The area is beautiful, and the people we've met have been very kind and hospitable," Renae concludes.

Chamber progress review

estival festival, the Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival, providing money to pay for printing the festival's brochures.

The chamber also continued to spread the work about this many attractions of Appomattox County, as 50,000 brochures describing the county were printed, with a total of 38,000 brochures distributed to date.

The "Shop at Home" theme, which was initiated last year in an advertising campaign before the Christmas shopping season, was continued throughout 1984 in a series on monthly advertisements in the Times-Virginian designed to remind people of the value of spending their money in their own county.

And, as always, Vaughan notes that the Chamber has benefited Appomattox County by providing an instrument for answering inquiries about the county, as well as other commerce-related correspondence.

"It's been a good year," Vaughan notes. "We are looking forward to continued progress in promoting Appomattox County in the coming year, and to continuing to provide our valuable service to all the people of Appomattox County, and to all people interested in Appomattox."
